SREENHALGE FOR GOVERNOR

NAMED BY BAY STATE REPUBLICANS.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC CONVENTION MEETS IN MUSIC HALL, BOSTON-EVERY CANDIDATE BUT ONE NAMED BY ACCLAMATION.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Boston, Oct. 7 .- The Republican State Convention in Music Hall to-day was one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in Massachusetts. There was evidently a widespread feeling of cer-tainty in the success of the ticket this fail, and this, of the ticket, made everybody unusually good-na tured. The ticket, which was nominated by acclamation with one exception, that of State Treasurer, is as follows:

For Governor-FREDERIU T. GREENHALGE, of Lowell. Lieutenant-Governor-ROGER WOLCOTT, of Boston. Secretary of State-WILLIAM M. OLIN, of Boston. Treesurer and Receiver-tioneral-HENRY M. PHILLIPS, of Springheid. Auditor-JOHN W. KIMBALL, of Fitchburg.

Attorney-General-HOSEA M. KNOWLTON, of New-

There were many distinguished party leaders the hall, including ex-Governors Robinson Brackett and Long, and ex-Lieutenant-Governor Haile, Senator Lodge, Congressmen Gillett, McCall, Randall, Apsley and Morse, ex-Secretary of State Pierce, Frank D. Allen, Colonel Glasgow, Colonel Goetting, President Pinkerton, of the State Senate, and Speaker Barrett.

It was a foregone conclusion that Mr. Greenhalge would be nominated by acclamation, for Attorney-General Pilisbury and ex-Mayor Hart had withdrawn in his favor. It was also known that Lieutenant-Governor Wolcott and Secretary of State Olin would be renominated, but a combat torney-Generalship. The only ballot, however, was for State Treasurer. The candidates were Henry M. Phillips, of Springfield, and Senator Edward F Shaw, of Newburyport. The ballot gave the nomi-nation to Mr. Phillips by a large majority. For office of Attorney-General there were two candidates-Hosea M. Knowlton, of New-Bedford; who ably conducted the prosecution in the Borden before a ballot was to have been ordered Frank P. Goulding, of Worcester, withdrew Mr. Gaskill's name and presented Mr. Knowlton's name. The nomination was then made by acclamation.

The speeches of acceptance by Messrs. Greenhalge and Wolcott were brief and to the point, arousing tremendous enthusiasm. Senator Lodge, who had been loudly called for, then made a graceful and Figorous speech of ten minutes, in which he pointed out the responsibility of the Democratic party for the present financial distress, and ridiculed the inaction of the Democratic Senate on the silver ques tion. Colonel William A. Bancroft, of Cambridge, presided with dignity and conducted the business of the convention in a masterly manner.

The platform demands the unconditional repeal of the purchasing clauses of the Silver act; reasserts the party's loyalty to protection; condemns the murderous acts of violence by mobs in any part of the country; deprecates the wanton partisanship of the dominant party in Congress the currency questions; indorses the National bank system; asserts the loyalty of the party to the soldiers in the matter of pensions; deprecates the violations of the Civil Service law and the bartering of public offices for gold; denounces indisimmigration; upholds free schools and free public libraries; favors all practical measures for the suppression of intemperance; calls for punishment upon violators of the election laws, and approves of a wise law supervising and controlling

Frederic T. Greenhalge was born in Lancaster England, July 19, 1842, his father moving to Lowell in 1854. He entered the public schools there, where won special credit for his abilities as a speaker In 1859 he entered Harvard College, his educational course, however, being cut short by the death of his father. During an interval of teaching he studied law. In 1863 he entered the Army, and was connected with the commissary department at New-Berne, N. C. In 1865 he was admitted to the Middlesex bar. In 1868 and 1869 he served in the Lowell Common Council, and in 1871 was elected to the School Board for two years. In 1880 and 1881 he was elected Mayor, and in 1888 he was elected to Congress by Republicans. In 1890 he failed of re-election. Mr. Greenhalge is prominently connected with the Unitarian Club and several other organizations, and is in demand as a public speaker. public speaker, an example of which was his sethe city of Boston as eulogist of Gen-

A. & A. Lawrence & Co. He is about forty-six years old, and of commanding presence and ability as an orator. He was class orator of the Harvard class of 1879. He was for three years a member of the Boston City Council and also served three terms in the Legislature. He was elected as Lieutenant-Governor last year, defeating the Democratic nominee by a large majority.

Secretary of State Olin and Auditor Kimball are renominations. Olin was formerly a newspaper man and achieved honor as a soldier.

Mr. Phillips, nominated for Treasurer, has been serving in the Legislature for several years. He has been a director in the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, the Second National Bank and the Five Cents Savings Bank, of Springfield. Mr. Knowlton, nominated for Attorney-General, was born in Maine in 1847. Graduating at Tufts College, and afterward at the Harvard Law School, he was admitted to the Massachusetts bar in 1879, and entered on a successful practice of law at New-Bedford. In 1875 and 1876 he was in the Legislature. He served two terms as Senator and decilined a third nomination. In 1879 he was appointed to succeed George Marston as District-Attorney for the Southern Massachusetts District, where he has been ever since.

THE ELMIRA INVESTIGATION.

SUPERINTENDENT BROCKWAY TESTIFIES

SCRIPTION OF THE METHODS OF DIS-

CIPLINE AND PUNISHMENT USED

Elmira, N. Y., Oct. 7 .- The investigation into the affairs of the Elmira Reformatory was continued this morning by the committee of the State Board f Charities, Commissioner Litchfield, the third the punishment of convicts with the approval, tacit or expressed, of the Board of Managers. The latter have adopted no resolutions formally direct-ing him how to discipline prisoners. He used his own discretion in the matter. The marking systhe constituted the principal method of discipline, the grade of the man changing with the loss or increase of privileges. The only means of com-pulsary discipline used is spanking with the paddle. The solitary cells are used more for de-tention than punishment. The feet of a prisoner days is the longest time a man is chained to the ring-bolt in the floor. They are not dark cells bread and water or tea at night.

If a prisoner erred the superintendent first tried ffence a spanking was administered, if the pris being a cord on the window sill. The prisoners are not usually raised from their feet. The exceptions are when a man being punished would not stand still. He recollected two cases where a convict was drawn up from the floor while being spanked, the suspensions not being for more

Mr. Brockaway testified that he has used a piece of old hose three feet long as a substitute for the straps where undue severity was necessary. The it, so that it will not bruise. An accurate record is kept by Mr. Brockway himself of all paddlings. The average number of blows is six or seven and the limit is twelve. In a few instances last year were administered. A slight blow will leave a mark. The effect of the blows is observed, and ounishment is discontinued. The witness said the reatment was not applied to subdue obstinate nan on with renewed purpose. He is present at all the paddlings and the continuance of the blows

The witness continued: "The treatment in the bathroom is to get the greatest effect. Suddenly addressing them by my manner and my voice I endeavor to change their dispositions. If this has no effect they are

"Have you struck a convict in the face as he turned his head while being spanked?" I have with my hand frequently turned the convict's head straight and also knocked him on the head. I have, also, in one instance tapped the conprofane language to convicts, but might not the word d—"

Chairman Craig said the code defined the use of that word as profanity.

The witness said there have been several attempts at insurrection since this investigation has begin, in one case six men refused to pour metal in the foundry, and they were spanked, one of them two different times. The witness said he had nipped in the bud another scheme of twenty-six convicts to refuse to work in the foundry. The incorrigible of these were included in the fifty convicts transferred to Auburn prison a short time ago.
